APPALOOSA REINING HORSE ASSOCIATION STALLION AUCTION

SIRE AND DAM BREEDING CONTRACT

Date Submitted: _____

I_____ hereby donate to the Appaloosa Reining Horse Association (ApRHA)_____breeding(s) to my stallion_____ for the 2027 breeding season to be to be sold to the highest bidder with the earliest postmark in the ApRHA stallion auction.

Advertised stud fee (excluding booking/chute fee) for the 2027 season is $_____ Booking /chute fee is $_____ Shipped semen available: yes____ no____
Frozen semen available: yes____ no____

All additional charges, mare care, shipping costs, vet bills etc. are the responsibility of the mare owner and need to be discussed between mare owner and stallion owner/agent.

Special points of interest: Money collected in this auction will be used in the 2031 ApRHA Buy, Breed & Win Futurity & Reining Futurities, as well as for advertising of the ApRHA. All bids start at ½ of the advertised stud fee or $500.00, whichever is greater.

1. One breeding (or more as designated by the agent for stallion) for the 2027 season for each of the listed stallions will be sold to the first successful bidder.

2. Bids will be accepted from December 19th- December 31st, 2026 via ApRHA Stallion Auction Page. All breedings not sold in this initial time period, are then listed on a first-come, first-serve basis (BUY IT NOW) and will be listed until March 31st, 2027 or until sold, whichever shall come first.

3. Each successful bidder will be bound by the breeding contract specified by the stallion selected. The contact information will be included on this form.

5. Breeding must be completed in the year breeding was purchased. If the breeding is not used in the year purchased, it becomes NULL AND VOID for any future years (with the exception of number 6 below) and there will be NO REFUNDS issued.

6. If the breeding is attempted and the mare does not come into foal, NO REFUNDS are issued. However, the amount spent on the breeding fee can be used for the SAME stallion in the following year, provided the current stallion is; 1) not sterile or 2) is not deceased. SHOULD the purchased breeding stallion have either of the two aforementioned criteria, the purchase price may go towards the purchase of a breeding in the same or immediate following year of a different stallion. In the event, the second breeding is of higher cost, it is the buyer's responsibility to pay the ApRHA the difference for the breeding. In the event, the second breeding is of lower cost, there are NO REFUNDS issued.

7. Any breeding purchased through the ApRHA Stallion Auction, the resulting Appaloosa foal is ELIGIBLE to exhibit in the $10,000 Buy, Breed, & Win Futurity in its 3-year-old year. The purchased breeding DOES NOT include the Entry Fee for the Buy, Breed, & Win Futurity. The Entry Fee will be calculated as a percentage based on the purse; 2% of purse will be that years' entry fee. Example: $10,000 purse = $200 entry fee. $20,000 purse = $400 entry fee.

9. The ApRHA Board of Directors reserves the right to rescind and/or change any of the rules, regulations and payouts of the ApRHA Stallion Auction at any time with 30-day notification to any affected parties for the betterment of the Stallion Auction.
